Assaults Against Teachers

Although its not a topic that most like to discuss, sometimes an assault against a teacher happens. Are you aware that according to our contract, your principal is supposed to go over the district's policy on assaults against teachers at the beginning of the year? The button below is a link to the district policy on assaults against teachers.

Contact the representatives on the State Board at state.board@cde.state.co.us and tell them to stop wasting time fretting over test scores that tell us very little about how our students learn and what they need to be successful. Tell them to start imagining Colorado schools with adequate resources. #SchoolsOurStudentsDeserve #InvestInOurSchools
